

Drought and deer resistant garden plants - Reny Parker 2010
* CA Native		true for my garden, maybe not in yours?
Plant	Common name	Comments
Aristolochia californica*	Dutchman's Pipe	grown in shade by creek
Artostaphylos manzanita*	Manzanita	nursery plants died, now using local seed
Artemisia californica*	CA Sage	great
Artemisia powis castle&silver mound		ok, but removed
Aster chilensis*	California Aster	ok in shade
Baccharis pilularis, low grower*	Coyote Brush	use low growing as ground cover
Carpenteria californica*	Bush anemone	shade
Ceanothus integerrimus*	Deerbrush	slow, but lovely
Ceanothus sp*		great, the small leaf varieties are deer resistant
Cercis occidentalis*	Western Redbud	tried numerous times but not successful
Choisya ternata	Mexican orange	grown in shade on south and west side of house
Cistus x aguilari	Rockrose	non native but very deer resistant
Cistus purpureus	Orchid Rockrose	non native but very deer resistant
Cistus skanbergii	Rockrose	non native but very deer resistant
Cistus sunset	Rockrose	non native but very deer resistant
Clematis armandii*	Evergreen clematis	in shade, doesn't bloom
Collinsia heterophylla*	Chinese Houses	growing naturally in deep shade
Correa pulchella	Australian fuschia	nov-april bloom, removed most but does well
Cynoglossum grande*	Hound's Tongue	great in shade of oaks
Deschampsia caespitosa holciformis*	Hair Grass	shade of oaks
Deschampsia holciformis*	Tufted hair grass	turns brown, but reseeds
Deschampsia jughandle*		shade of oaks
Dodecatheon hendersonii*	Henderson's Shooting Star	shade of oaks
Eriogonum spp.	Buckwheat	fairly new to the garden, settling in
Euphorbia myrsinites	Donkey tail	succulent like, reseeds
Festuca californica*	CA fescue	shade of oaks
Fremontodendron*	Fremontodendron	great - fast
Garrya elliptica*	Coast Silk Tassel	good, shade of oaks
Grevillia canberra		huge, Australian native, hummers love it
Heteromeles arbutifolia*	Toyon	shade of oaks
Heuchera micrantha*	Alumroot	shade of oaks
Iris - native*	Iris	in shade to part shade
Lavendula intermedia	provence/etc.	one variety reseeds
Lepechinia calycina*	Pitcher Sage	good in sun, reseeds
Mimulus aurantiacus*	Sticky Monkey Flower	grow in part shade
Monardella villosa - russian river*	Coyote Mint	shade to part shade
Muhlenbergia rigens*	Deer Grass	great in sun
Nepeta fassinii	Cat Mint	good but removed most
Origanum herrenhausen	Oregano	lilac pink, purple lvs in winter
Origanum hopleys	Oregano	deep purple
Phlomis fruticosa	Jerusalem sage	yellow flowers, okay but removed
Pickeringia montana*	Chaparral Pea	just transplanted from another area of ranch
Rhus integrifolia*	Lemonade berry	very drought tolerant
Ribes sanguineum*	Red flowering currant	good in part shade
Ribes viburnifolium*	Catalina currant	great under oaks
Romneya colteri*	Matilija poppy	once est. good, but doesn't spread
Rosa californica	CA Wild Rose	in morning sun, rarely blooms
Rosemary officinalis	Rosemary	small shrub, ok but removed
Salvia apiana*		long spikes
Salvia clevelandii w. gilman*		color amazing, reseeds
Salvia leucophylla pt. sal*		all these salvias do well in my garden
Salvia sonomensis bee's bliss*
Salvia sonomensis, dara's choice*
Salvia spathacea*	Hummingbird Sage	great in full sun/pt shade, spreads by creeping rhizomes
Solidago californica*	Goldenrod	good, reseeds
Symphoricarpos albus*	Snowberry	in part shade, 1 of 3 plants survived