Reny Parker

author of the award-winning

Wildflowers of Northern California's Wine Country & North Coast Ranges

"Wildflowers bring color, joy and union with all pervading intelligence. In sharing my passion for wildflowers I hope you are encouraged to take a closer look at these wonders of nature. May you be inspired to care for these delicate beauties and help preserve them for future generations. Discover enchanting meadows filled with wildflowers and the closeness to heaven they bring. Shy beauties must be sought out, look closely."
